

"Bill Blagg III was a gem. We booked his show as part of a series aimed at reaching out to low income families, and attracted an audience of over 700. Bill's magic was wonderfully engaging, and his mechanics -- especially his lighting -- was spectacular. But most important was his onstage persona. He endeared himself to the many children in the audience with his playful humor, and the adults were swept up in the simple joy of a well staged show by a truly lovable performer."

Ric Waldman

Director of Programming and Audience Development
Capitol Center for the Arts, Concord, NH