

The Science of Santa

The Doktor Kaboom holiday show in which the good Doktor, working from the assumption that science and magic are the same thing, declares Mr. Claus the world's greatest scientist and using basic physics attempts to recreate all of Santa's wonders.

Topics covered include: safety; Bernoulli's Principle; WiFi signals; nanotechnology; absorption polymers; the chemical composition of snow; cold and the absence of heat; energy.